★★★★★ | Frank - 4th of July 2023

"Wow! Wish we could have stayed more than one weekend. We saw bush babies, giraffes, zebra's, kudu's and many more. We are sad to leave but will definitely return to MRLTH. Thanks a million!"

★★★★★ | Marlene - 10th of July 2023

"MRLTH. was beautiful and had all the boxed ticked for a great stay. The location is very convenient being just outside the Kruger National Park. Feeding Zebra's whilst bathing in the outdoor bath. Highly recommended!"

About the villa.

WIFI NAME: MRLTH.

CHECK-IN: After 14:00

Please contact one of the hosts 30 minutes prior to your arrival to guarantee a seamless check-in. You can text/Whatsapp or call them. We do not recommend arriving any later than 19:00.

Host Cindy: 084 778 2739

CHECK-OUT: 10:00

Please throw your waste bags in the garbarage cages (located at the start of the driveway) to avoid any insects coming into the house.

After locking the house and activating the alarm, you can easily check-out by returning the key into the safe box next to the main entrance door.

The code of the key box will be provided by the host, please make sure these numbers aren't visible after returning the keys.

About the villa.

Look-out Tower

Entering the look-out tower is at your own risk. Please don't exceed the maximum weight limit of 500 kilo (about 6 people).

Swimming Pool

The large pool of 6x2M is for your private use. The pool is cleaned before your arrival, but for your comfort the automatic vacuum cleaner will be in the pool. If you would like to unplug it, you can easily do so by unplugging the hose in the filter.

At no time is there a lifeguard on duty, you (the guest) are responsible for the safe operation of the pool and are responsible for all persons using the pool during your stay. By making use of the pool area, you automatically accept the rules and terms & conditions and you indemnify the owners from any and all liability to property, or personal injury or death to, any third party, resulting from the use of the pool or pool area.

Please find the full waiver which is automatically accepted when you make use of the pool (area) at the end of this booklet or on www.mrlth.com.

Baby bed and high chair

The villa comes equipped with a baby bed and high chair for your convenience. If you would like to use these, please inform the staff prior to your arrival.

Boma & Braai (BBQ)

In the garden you can find the firepit and the braai (barbecue). Underneath the barbecue some tools and a fire extinguisher can be found. Firewood and charcoal can be bought at the stores in the Bushcentre and are also widely available in Malalane and Komatipoort. Gathering wood in Marloth is prohibited.

Please make sure all fires are properly monitored & extinguished. Never leave a fire unattended, since the bush can be very dry.

Fire Alarms & Extinguishers

Every room in the house is equipped with a fire alarm. In the event of a fire, contact the fire department immediately by phoning 112. Fire extinguishers can be found next to the braai and in the kitchen (next to the trash bin). In the bottom drawer next to the fridge you can find a first aid kit and a fire blanket.

Water and Electricity

Please consider the environment when using water & electricity. These resources are scarce in South Africa. Loadshedding unfortunately is very common in Marloth Park. These are periods where the electricity grid is overloaded and therefore not functioning. The villa is equipped with a back-up water tank and electricity system to supply you with three hours of power (at normal/average usage) and should loadshedding occur.

However, some shops and restaurants are closed during this time so it is wise to install the mobile app 'ESP' for you to track when loadshedding will be in the area. Marloth Park and surroundings are situated in area 8.

About the villa.

Alarm System

For your safety the villa is equipped with an alarm system and CCTV-monitoring linked to an armed response unit of iSecure. Please ensure to close all windows, lock the door and activate the alarm when leaving the property. Should the alarm go off, iSecure will visit the property to check if all is well.

The alarm-code is issued through our hosts on arrival. In the event of a false alarm, please contact iSecure as soon as possible by phoning them on 061 527 9330.

Towels & Bedding

All the linen used in the villa are of premium hotel grade quality and freshly laundered upon your arrival. Towels are provided. If you require additional towels or linen, please contact our hosts at location.

Cleaning Service

Upon your arrival our housekeeping team has deep cleaned the entire villa. We take great pride in a 5-star experience. Need a clean mid-stay? We can provide an additional full service clean of the property at an additional charge. (Subject to availability)

Please wash all dishes and/or place the dishes within the dishwasher before departure. Guests are not required to strip bed linen from beds. Please leave used towels in bathrooms.

If the property is left in an excessively messy condition excess cleaning fees will apply

Airconditioning

The villa is generously equipped with air conditioning to keep you comfortable during your stay. As part of our continued efforts in sustainability we ask you to turn the air conditioning off when a room is not in use and keep all doors and windows closed whilst the air conditioning is on.

Please ensure to not run the air conditioning for more than three hours at a time and setting it below 20 degrees Celsius to avoid the compressor overworking.

Safe

Inside the closet of both bedrooms, there a security safe where you can put your most valuable belongings. The hosts will provide you with the security code.

Coffee

We have two coffee machines, one for nespresso capsules and one for grounded beans.

Rules & regulations.

By making a booking at MRLTH. and/or staying at MRLTH., you signify that you have read the contents of the indemnity /disclaimer form and that you understand and appreciate the nature and effect(s) hereof and that same constitutes a binding agreement.

Please find the full waiver which is automatically accepted when you enter Marloth Park and/or the property at the end of this booklet or on www.mrlth.com

Breakage

It is the guest's full responsibility to acknowledge any notable damage to the property within 2 hours of entry into the property. If breakage or damage happens during your stay, you can be charged a fee for replacement.

2

Park rules

Since Marloth Park is a conservancy; no pets, parties, loud noises or music are allowed. This is strictly enforced by the police department and fines are hefty. No walking/biking at night time. Speeding limits are 50km/h on paved roads and 30km/h.

Smoking and fires

There is strictly no smoking inside the property. Please make use of the ashtrays provided when smoking outside since the bushveld around can be very dry and flammable. Open fires are not allowed outside of the Boma/Braai areas.

4

Electricity and alarm

Please turn of the airconditioners, lights and all other small electricity items to save energy. Once you leave the house, please turn on the alarm for your own safety.

About Marloth Park.

Welcome to Marloth Park, a unique holiday destination. Marloth Park is a wildlife sanctuary situated on the southern boundary of the Kruger National Park. What sets Marloth Park apart from other reserves is the fact that the wildlife here roams free, offering visitors a truly authentic African experience.

You might wake up to the sound of lions roaring in the Kruger National Park or catch a glimpse of a majestic giraffe or zebra as it strolls past your private luxury villa.

Kruger National Park is just a short drive away and can be entered using two gates; Crocodile bridge gate (14 KM) and Malelane gate (34 KM). In the following pages you will read more about all highlights in and around Marloth Park:

- Interactions with the animals
- Supermarkets and stores
- Restaurants
- Visiting the Kruger National Park
- Activities in Marloth Park
- Activities nearby Marloth Park

Interaction with animals

Our goal is for you to have a pleasurable experience exploring everything Marloth Park has to offer, but we also want to ensure your safety during your visit. To achieve this, we kindly request that you comply with the following rules in order to keep you and the animals around Marloth Park safe.

- Feeding the animals

Game feed/pallets are available for purchase at Daisy's Den in the Bush Center. You can also feed the bushbabies bananas by putting it on the platform in the tree behind the boma Do not feed the animals any other foods as this can cause harm to them.

- Stay cautious

Animals roam freely in Marloth Park. Leopards, snakes, spiders and plains game are frequent visitors, so always be vigilant and cautious. Please close all doors and windows to keep wildlife out of the property. Don't walk after dark.

- Snakes

If confronted by a snake, please stay calm and move several steps away from it. In most cases it will move off and be of no threat to you. If you encounter a snake in the villa, please don't try to catch or kill it, that's how you get bitten. Call Juan's rescue centre via 060 665 5000 to remove the snake, they will relocate it.

- Baboons

Baboons can cause a lot of problems. Please lock the doors and windows, don't leave food unattended and never feed these animals. This can lead to dangerous situations for both the animals and humans.

Supermarkets and shopping.

You can stock up groceries at Malalane or Komatipoort SPAR. For basic groceries, nice meat and curious, Marloth Park has a few nice shops.

The Bush Centre

This small shopping centre is conveniently located along the Olifants Dr. Here you will find a lovely butchery named Wild Butchery. For groceries you can visit the Ingwe Supermarket and Game, Animal & Bird feed can be purchased at Daisy's Den. There are ATM's from FNB & ABSA and a laundromat is also present.

Marlothi Shopping Centre

Only a few hundred meters from the Bush Centre. This small shopping center comprises of a gas station, carwash, liquor store, post-office, supermarket with butcher, curios shop and (take-away) restaurant The Tin Shack.

Komatipoort

Komatipoort is only 17 kilometers away from Marloth Park and has all conveniences you can expect from a small town. Fast food is available in the form of KFC, Debonairs, Steers, Fishaways & Wimpy. Fuel is widely available at BP, Caltex & Engen. Other services include pharmacies, tire shops and ATM's.

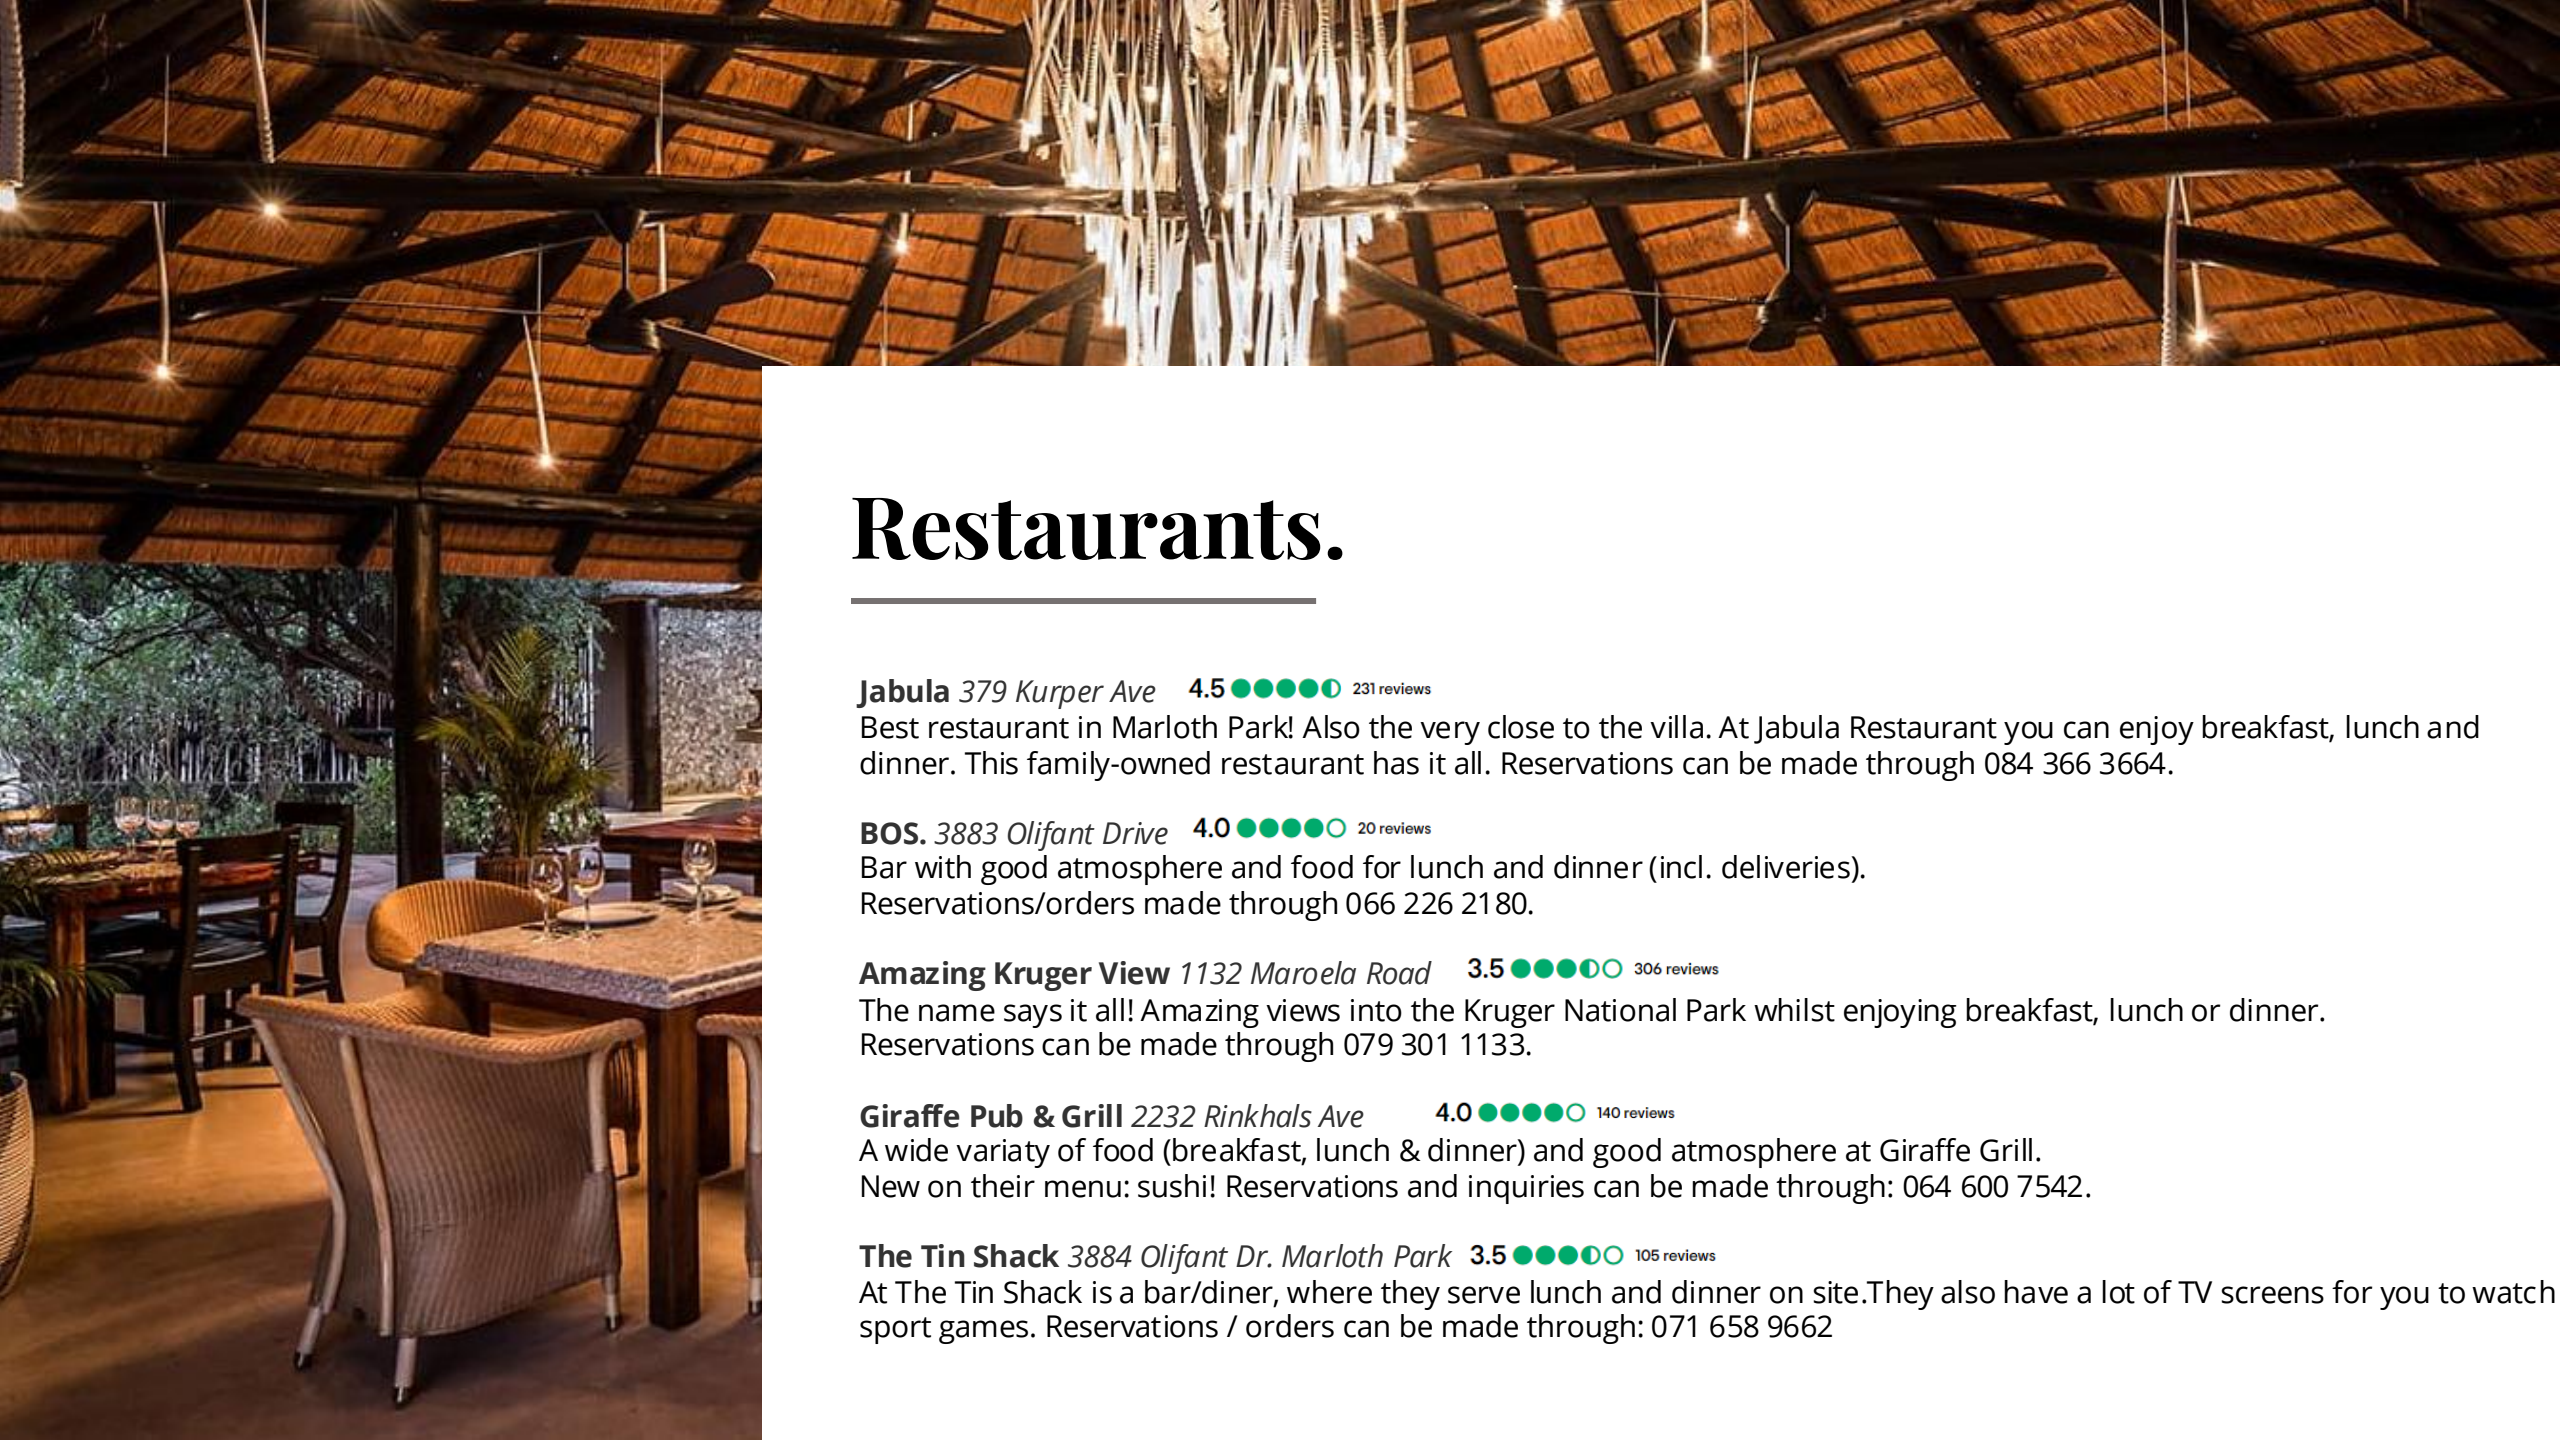

Marula Padstal

A nice stop between Marloth Park & the Crocodile Bridge Entry Gate into the Kruger National Park is Marula Padstal. A cute little curios-shop where you can buy curios or a quick snack and drink. Ask the friendly owner for a "Koeksister" cookie and be ready to be amazed.

Crocodile Bridge Gate & Camp

The Crocodile Bridge entrance gate to the Kruger National Park is only 14 kilometers from Marloth Park. At the entrance to the park, you will find multiple curio shops, a small supermarket, an ATM and a Total gas station. Tip: Buy a map of the park in the park-shop that includes an animal-checklist. This way you can keep track of all the amazing sightings you are going to experience!

Visitors can explore the colonial architecture and bustling markets of Maputo, sample delicious seafood, and dance to the rhythms of Mozambican music.

Outside of the city, visitors can relax on pristine beaches, explore coral reefs teeming with marine life. Mozambique is also home to some of the best diving and snorkelling spots in the world, with crystal clear waters and an abundance of marine life.

Visit eSwatini (Swaziland)

Swaziland is a small kingdom nestled in the heart of Southern Africa and offers breathtaking natural beauty, from mountains and forests to game reserves and rivers. Visit the Swazi Cultural Centre for traditional Swazi dance and music or spot wildlife whilst mountainbiking at the Mlilwane Wildlife Sanctuary.

What to do around Kruger National Park?

Panorama Route

The Panorama Route is a spectacular scenic drive that starts just 2hrs drive from Marloth Park. The route offers breathtaking views and is a must-visit destination for anyone seeking the beauty of South Africa's natural landscapes and cultural heritage. Coming from Hazyview, start at the Sabie Falls and then take the route: MacMac Falls, Graskop, God's Window, Bourke's Luck Potholes and Three Rondavels.

2

Lowveld Botanical Garden

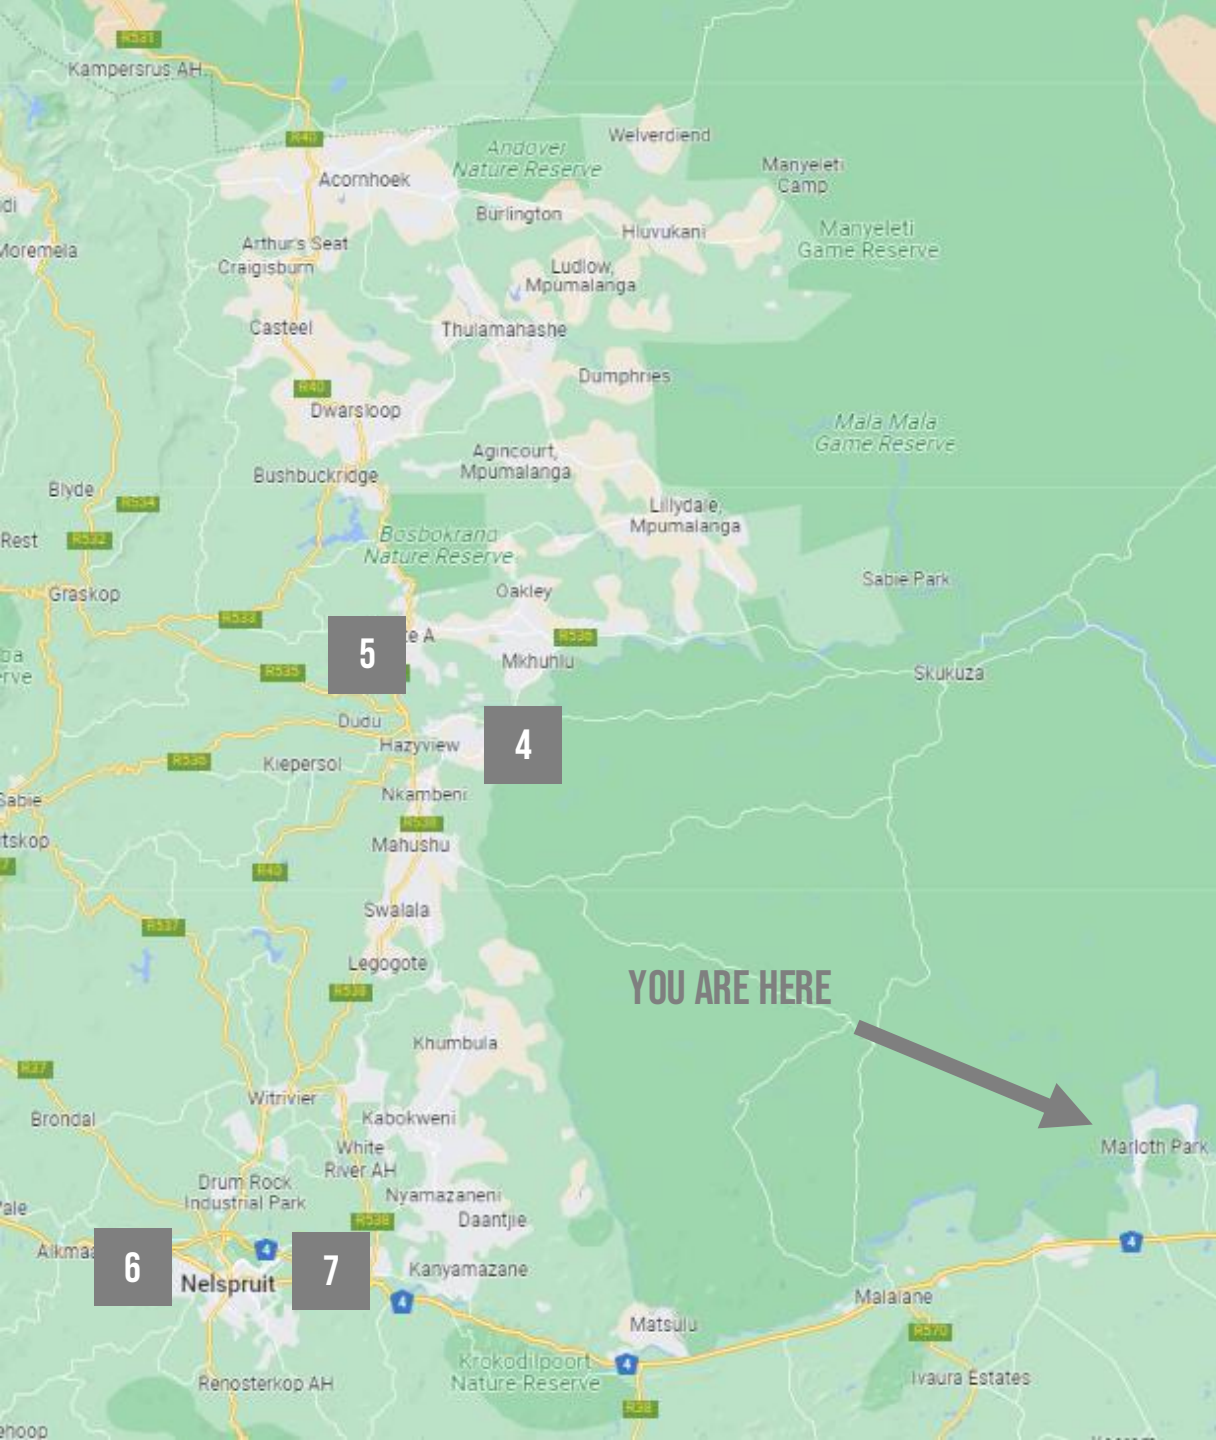

The Lowveld Botanical Garden is a stunning and unique destination located in Nelspruit, South Africa. This beautiful garden is home to a vast collection of indigenous plants and trees, including rare and endangered species. Visitors can explore the many paths and trails throughout the garden, which showcases different plant habitats and ecosystems, such as savannah, forest, and riverine.

The garden also features a large lake, waterfalls, and a collection of cycads, one of the oldest and most primitive plants on earth.

Sudwala Caves

The Sudwala Caves, ZIP-line and Butterfly Garden in South Africa offer a unique and unforgettable experience for visitors. The Sudwala Caves, formed over millions of years, are one of the oldest and largest caves in the world, featuring a variety of stunning rock formations and underground pools. The ZIP-line adventure takes visitors on a thrilling ride and the Butterfly Garden offers visitors the chance to see and learn about various butterfly species, including the rare and endangered ones.

Tips & Tricks

Latest Sighting - Wildlife App

Would you like to know where the latest animal sightings have been in the Kruger National Park? Download "Latest Sightings - Wildlife" in the App Store and make the most out of your visit! Please don't mention any sightings of rhino's as they are very endangered and a daily victim of poaching.

Facebook

Marloth Park has a very close community on Facebook. For the latest sightings in and around the park, go to 'Marloth Park Sightings' and for promotions in the park visit 'Marloth Park Marketing'. On Facebook, take a look at 'Kruger Sightings', much like the Latest Sightings App you will receive real time updates about any spectacular sightings that may occur in the park.

SIM-card

International visitor? We would recommend buying a local SIM-card with voice + data during your stay in South Africa. The carriers with the best coverage are Vodacom and MTN. SIM-cards can be bought at almost every supermarket in Marloth and Komatipoort. A SIM-card with 3GB Data and 60min voice costs approximately ZAR 200

Wild Card

The Wild Card Membership gives you one year's unlimited entry to 80+ National Parks, Reserves and Resorts around Southern Africa. It can be of great value if you are planning to visit the Kruger National Park for more than 6 days or visit more parks during your stay in South Africa. Go to https://www.sanparks.org/wildcard_new/ to look at the options and prices.

INDEMNITY / DISCLAIMER MARLOTH PARK CONSERVANCY AND MRLTH.

Release of Liability, Waiver of Claims, Assumption of Risk, and Indemnity Agreement

By making a booking at MRLTH., entering the property and/or staying at MRLTH. you signify that you have read the contents of this indemnity / disclaimer form, that you understand and appreciate the nature and effect(s) hereof and that same constitutes a binding agreement, and that, by appending yourself hereto, you hereby confirm that all terms and conditions shall be interpreted and take effect according to the laws of South Africa and the courts of South Africa shall have sole jurisdiction in respect of any claims which may arise.

1. You are entering a wildlife reserve, to wit the Marloth Park Conservancy ("the reserve"), which you understand is situated in a malaria area and where an abundance of species of wildlife roam free and of their own accord;
2. You are fully aware that by entering the reserve, you will be participating in activities in and around the reserve, including, without limitation, in and around the villa area, which activities include, without limitation, the viewing of wildlife, either on foot or from open or closed vehicles, moving about over rough terrain, making use of ramps and stairs and other facilities including, without limitation, the swimming pool, which activities may be inherently dangerous and which activities require that you exercise reasonable care;
3. You fully acknowledge that by participating in activities you may be exposed to various risks of harm, and agree that you are entering the reserve and participating in any and all activities, at your own risk;
4. The reserve, Marloth Park Conservancy and MRLTH. and their related or inter-related companies, corporations, trusts and / or associations, their directors, shareholders, members, agents, employees, representatives, insurers and the relevant landowners, do not accept any liability for any harm of whatsoever nature, suffered by you or your guests, including, without limitation, -
 1. any loss of and / or damage to, any property;
 2. any sickness, illness and / or infection caught, contracted and / or which developed, etc.; and / or
 3. any injury to, or death of, any person; arising from whatsoever cause, including, without limitation, arising in the course of your visit or stay at the reserve, including, without limitation, in any of its lodges, or as a consequence of your participation in any activity whatsoever, including, without limitation, tours and excursions, within or outside of the boundaries of the reserve, and whether or not due to negligent, grossly negligent or wilful acts or omissions;
5. You hereby expressly, unconditionally and without reservation, indemnify (and / or undertake to indemnify) the reserve, Marloth Park Conservancy and MRLTH. and their related or inter-related companies, corporations, trusts and / or associations, their directors, shareholders, members, agents, employees, representatives, insurers and the relevant landowners, and hold them harmless (or undertake to hold them harmless) and absolve them, in full, in respect of any harm, of whatsoever nature and arising from whatsoever cause, suffered by you or any member of your party, including, without limitation, the harm and under the circumstances, referred to or contemplated in clause 4 above;
6. You further hereby waive and abandon any claim/s, which you, your dependents or executors, trustees or curators may have, at any time, against the reserve, Marloth Park Conservancy and MRLTH. and their related or inter-related companies, corporations, trusts and / or associations, their directors, shareholders, members, agents, employees, representatives, insurers and the relevant landowners;
7. insofar you made a booking, stayed at MRLTH. and/or read and accept this document in our representative capacity on behalf of any person, including, without limitation, minors, the elderly or persons with any disability, you hereby confirm that you are duly authorized to do so and that there is no lawful impediment which exists and which precludes you from doing so.

SWIMMING POOL WAIVER AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY FORM MRLTH.

Release of Liability, Waiver of Claims, Assumption of Risk, and Indemnity Agreement

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY. BY MAKING USE OF THE POOL FACILITIES AT MRLTH., YOU CHOOSE TO WAIVE CERTAIN LEGAL RIGHTS, INCLUDING THE RIGHT TO SUE.

By choosing to use the pool facilities, you recognize and fully understand that:
